Eight candidates seek four seats in Rossville-Alvin district

ROSSVILLE—Three incumbents and five newcomers are running for four seats on the Rossville-Alvin school board.

Incumbents Bob Ray, Gary Gernand and Tim Thornsborough are seeking re-election while newcomers David Boyer, Ed Perkins, Roger Satterwhite, Dennis Price and Lynndel Davan are challenging them.

Incumbent Gene Hughes did not seek re-election.

Voting in that district is divided into congressional townships with no more than three members from any of the six townships able to be seated.

Winners will be based on which township they are in, as well as how many votes each receives.

In township 22N, Range 12 W, Boyer and Perkins are competing. Incumbents Don Frazier and Tony Zarate are already seated in that township.

In 22N Range 11W, Satterwhite, Price and Ray are running. Ray and Billy Matthews are current board members.

In 23N Range 12W, Davan is the only candidate, while in 21N Range 11W, Gernand and Thornsborough are running. Two townships, 23N Range 11W and 21N Range 12W have no candidates and no seated members.

11th candidate files for HA board

An eleventh person has filed to run in the Hoopeston Area school board election Nov. 4.

Oscar E. "Buddy" Young of Cheneyville turned in his petition before Monday's 5 p.m. deadline.

Young, along with six others, are running for two seats open from the area outside the former Hoopeston School District.

Other candidates in that race are John Hott, John Smiley, Duane Sheppard, Patti Roberts Arlyn Rudin and Lisa Austin.

Four people are running for two seats inside the former district. Candidates are Larry Lobb, Terry Beauvois, Scott Crose and Jeff Stipp.

Incumbents Gary Miller and Mike Morris, from

WHPO hires news director

A new voice is being heard on local radio.

WHPO announced Tuesday that Sheree Bussard has joined their staff as news director.

Bussard, of Armstrong, was the morning personality in Paxton for six years. While there, she acted as traffic director, on-air personality and promotions director.

Her duties at WHPO will include performing the newscasts at 6, 7 and 8 a.m., noon and 4 p.m. and various other on-air duties, along with live remote broadcasts.

Bussard began her duties Aug. 25.

She and her husband, Scott, have a four-year-old son, Spencer.
